2015 CARFF Auction Report by Rob & Gale McCoy

What a wonderful turnout of volunteers we had, I won't mention all names, you know who you were. It's so much easier and efficient when we have everyone helping. It is our main fundraiser and without it we would have to rely on increased membership fees or beg for grants.

We had forewarned Humpty's Restaurant that a load of us were coming at 7:00 AM and when we showed up, they were more than ready for us; I couldn't believe how fast my food showed up so we were fed and watered and on our way to the hall by 7:45 AM

Tables were unloaded and set up by 8:30 AM and we had 3 lots that were preregistered, unloaded and laid out for viewing shortly after that. We had 365 items to sell and they went well and we were done selling about 5:00pm.

The concession was fabulous and the burgers were extraordinary, good job to all the worked there.

A very special thanks to the non-member that showed up to help: Cindra Weich, Ann Carney, Wendy Brooker, Margret Rehman, Audrey Hutmacher and Barb Pomare. It's great when we get members to help but very special when their wives jump in as well, Thank you so much girls; next year I will try and have Brad Pitt as a guest auctioneer for you all.

We should do well financially this year as we have eliminated most of our expenses, the only bills we have are the hall rental, the cost of concession supplies, and the office supplies (bid cards, consignment sheets, sales tags etc.). We are ahead $800 on auctioneers and the way John and Eraldo performed I don't think we need to worry about them anymore. Lots of comments on the slower pace and being able to understand the bids etc. the tables don't cost $500 anymore as we own them now.

We will have some figures for you at the next meeting as it does take some time to enter all the sales and record the bid cards etc.

Many thanks for all the help everyone!
Rob & Gale McCoy

EDITOR'S SOAPBOX

Eraldo Pomare

It's great to see the weather settling down and more flying activity at the Bawtinheimer Field.

I heard that a club member recently suffered propellor related hand injury at the field - hopefully he is OK, but it's a reminder to all of us to think safety at all times.

The auction went off well: Rob & Gale McCoy did a great job planning & organizing the auction. It was also great to see the event so well supported by the membership. Well done everyone!
